

Dan Wolterman
President & CEO, Memorial Hermann Healthcare System

Dan Wolterman joined Memorial Hermann Healthcare System as Senior Vice President of Hospital Operations in 1999 and was named President and CEO in 2002. He has over 30 years experience in the healthcare industry.

Mr. Wolterman has a long history of community involvement. Currently he chairs the American Heart Association, Houston Region and the 2011 National Senior Games. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor at The University of Texas School of Public Health and is on the University of Houston-Clear Lake Healthcare Administration Program Advisory Council. He has chaired other organizations including the Greater Houston Partnership, Texas Hospital Association Board of Directors, and Voluntary Hospitals of America-Texas Board of Directors.

Mr. Wolterman has received numerous honors including the American Hospital Association and Texas Hospital Association Grassroots Champion Award, the Health Access Texas Public Health Award, the InterFaith Care Partners Sustaining Presence Award, Xavier University Distinguished Alumni Award and the Community Partners Father of the Year Award. In addition, he was named one of the 100 Most Powerful People in Healthcare in 2008 and 2009 by Modern Healthcare magazine.

Mr. Wolterman earned a B.S. degree in Business Administration and a M.B.A. in Finance from the University of Cincinnati. He received his Masters Degree in Healthcare Administration from Xavier University.