

Dan Wolterman

Dan Wolterman joined Memorial Hermann Healthcare System in 1999 as Senior Vice President and was named President and CEO in 2002. Mr. Wolterman has a long history of community involvement including serving as the current Chair of the Greater Houston Partnership, Immediate Past Chairman of Voluntary Hospitals of America-Texas Board of Directors and the Immediate Past Chairman of the Texas Hospital Association. Additionally, he serves on the board or is a committee member of the Non-Profit Systems CEO Group, J.P. Morgan Advisory Board, Health Leaders Media Editorial Advisory Board, the American Heart Association, the United Way, and the Harris County Healthcare Alliance. Mr. Wolterman is an Adjunct Professor at The University of Texas School of Public Health and serves on the University of Houston – Clear Lake Healthcare Administration Program Advisory Council.

Mr. Wolterman earned a B.S. degree in Business Administration from the University of Cincinnati in 1979, an M.B.A. in Finance in 1980 and an M.H.A. from Xavier University in 1982. Mr. Wolterman was the 2007 recipient of the American Hospital Association Texas Grassroots Champion Award, the 1990 recipient of Modern HealthCare's "Up and Comers" Award and diplomat of the American College of Healthcare Executives.