

IACCGH BOARD OF DIRECTOR 2010

Dr. Vidya Bhushan Verma

Dr. Vidya Bhushan Verma has a very diverse technical, business development and management background. Over the last four decades of his oil and gas industry involvement, he has developed a very strong network of professionals in the oil and gas industry worldwide, specifically in India, Russia and North America. He is considered to be a natural leader who believes in team work and motivates his team by example.

An active member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers for over 30 years, he has volunteered for several SPE technical committees and is a registered Professional Engineer. He has also been serving on the Industry Advisory Board of the University of Tulsa, Oklahoma for the last eight years. Currently, he is also a member of the Energy Advisory Group that serves as an advisory body to the Indian oil and gas industry.

Over the last two decades, Dr. Verma has devoted a lot of his time to voluntary work for the society in general and Indian community in specific. In Anchorage, he was the President of the Indian Association for two years (1986-7) and organized many social and cultural activities. In Houston, he has actively participated in many local volunteer activities. Recently, he was elected to the Board of Directors for the First Colony Community Association for a 3-year term. Also, he has served the DAV Schools and has been on the Managing Committee of Arya Samaj Greater Houston for the last ten years. He also co-chaired the last three international conferences for Arya Pratinidhi Sabha of North America, where he now serves on its Board of Directors and Executive Committee as Vice President.

For the IACCGH Board of Directors, Dr. Verma will bring a fresh perspective on issues of professional interactions, inter and intra community relationships, membership and public relationship campaigns.
