

IACCGH TREASURER 2010

Ajit V. Thakur, C.P.A

Ajit Thakur has an established practice as a Certified Public Accountant in the Houston area that continues to be a positive impact on business growth and private individuals financial development. Ajit received his degree in commerce/accountancy from BMCC – Pune University in 1966. He became a chartered accountant in 1970. Ajit is licensed as a CPA in Texas. Ajit has over three decades of experience in industry and public practice. He has worked in positions such as Management Accountant, Chief Internal Auditor, Company Secretary and Financial Controller in diverse industries such as a MNC pharmaceutical company, an automobile manufacturer, a paper mill in India and a group of companies in Bahrain. In Texas he has practiced public accounting for over 18 years. He concentrates on multi-state and international tax issues and business tax and wealth planning.

Ajit Thakur networks to both expand his own firm as well take an instrumental role in the Houston international business community. He has worked with community organizations like IIT Alumni, Maharashtra Mandal, Gujarati Samaj and India Culture Center in Houston. Ajit has been instrumental in facilitating the process of numerous groups becoming 501(c)(3) organizations to better enhance the Houston community. Ajit and Deepa are involved in numerous diverse community projects. They are involved with many charitable organizations such as Indian temples, educational non-profits and the United Way. Ajit works with his peers in professional organizations such as Texas Society of CPAs and the American Management Association.