

Sudarshana Mona Parikh
Partner, Jones, Mays, Ramsey & Parikh

S. Mona Parikh is the current President-Elect and the past Secretary of the Board of the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Houston.

She is a Partner in the law offices of Jones, Mays, Ramsey & Parikh and is licensed to practice law in both Texas and California. Her areas of practice include Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate and Corporate Law. Ms. Parikh is the legal counsel (on a case by case basis) for various Indian nonprofit organizations including, BAPS Care International - Houston, Gujarati Samaj of Houston, and Leva Patidar Samaj of Houston.

She is very active in the Indo-American community and serves on the Board of the Houston Chapter of Pratham USA, a non-profit organization providing education to underprivileged children in India. She is also a board member of the Houston Business Development, Inc. (HBD), a nonprofit organization established by the City of Houston, to stimulate economic growth, support the expansion of small businesses, and combat community deterioration.

After receiving a Bachelor of Commerce degree and a Bachelor of Law (LL.B.) degree from the University of Bombay, India, she attended and graduated with highest honors from Golden Gate University School of Law in San Francisco, California, receiving a Jurisprudence Doctor (J.D.) degree with a specialization in International Law.