CHECK FRAUD SEMINAR

IACCGH's Seminar on Check Fraud

Speakers

Assistant District Attorneys John Boone and Bernadette Hernandez-Haby of the Check Fraud Division of Harris County

Who should attend

All businesses, professionals and organizations who receive checks in payment of goods/services

The Harris County District Attorney's office is dedicated to prosecuting all criminals. The Check Fraud Division of the District Attorney's Office handles cases where bad checks are presented in exchange for goods and/or services. In an effort to assist business owners in prosecuting those who have stolen from them by presenting bad checks, Assistant District Attorneys John Boone and Bernadette Hernandez-Haby of the Check Fraud Division will be addressing business owners in the community
