About our Keynote Speakers

AMIT MISRA

Misra Legal Group

Board Certified in Labor and Employment law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, Mr. Misra has worked with clients of all sizes, from businesses that are closely-held and family-owned to those in the Fortune 10. He has served as inside counsel with a major energy company, advising a human resources department responsible for over 4,000 employees and union-represented refinery workers, and as outside counsel while working with a national boutique firm, a mid-sized regional firm, and now with his own firm.

Mr. Misra advises businesses on all aspects of the employment relationship, including counseling with respect to human resources management and labor relations; representation before administrative agencies; and representation in arbitration and litigation related to the employment relationship and labor relations.

Mr. Misra received his Juris Doctor from the University of Texas School of Law in 1995, his Master of Public Affairs from the University of Texas, Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, in 1995, and his Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs from the George Washington University, in 1992, where he was elected Phi Beta Kappa.

NITIN SUD

Littler Mendelson, P.C.

Mr. Sud represents and counsels employers in all aspects of labor and employment law arising under both federal and state law, including wrongful termination and civil rights litigation, equal employment opportunity, wage and hour regulation, and non-compete/non-solicitation litigation. He also frequently handles bankruptcy-related matters that may have an impact on employment litigation.

Mr. Sud received his Juris Doctor from the University of Houston Law School in 2005, where he graduated cum laude and served as Notes and Comments Editor on the Houston Law Review. He also received his Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy from Duke University in 2000.
