ABOUT THE EVENT:

How well do you understand what drives your business?
Do you have a clear strategy? How well do you execute it?
Successful businesses have two common traits - Clarity and Coherence.

How much clarity and coherence is there in your business/team/organization?

Come gain practical insights from Ravi Kathuria. He will challenge your management and leadership perspectives. Kathuria will discuss:

1. How can you improve your business clarity?
2. How can you take your business/team/organization to the next level by connecting your mission, vision, strategy, processes, culture, and execution?
3. How can you develop the traits you need to succeed as a business leader, and as a team member?
