EDWARD D. DANIELS

Executive Vice President,
Shell Global Solutions Downstream

Ed Daniels received a Masters of Chemical Engineering degree from Imperial College, London in 1988. He joined Shell in the same year in the Refining business. Ed undertook a number of assignments in refining and during this time he studied for his MBA. Following his time in refining, Ed joined the sales and marketing division of Shell covering responsibilities in the UK and later across Europe.

Ed moved to Singapore in 2000 to undertake a number of business projects in the sales and marketing area across Asia Pacific. Ed returned to London in 2003 to take up the responsibility as the General Manager for Shell's Global Lubricants Base Oil activities – manufacturing, supply and sales.

In November 2006 Ed became President of CRI/Criterion Inc., based in Houston, Texas. CRI/Criterion Inc, designs, manufactures and markets refining and petrochemical Catalysts globally for Shell and Third Parties. Ed added the Third Party Sales and Marketing of Shell Global Solutions Services to his portfolio during this assignment.

In July 2009 Ed was appointed Executive Vice President of Global Solutions Downstream with responsibility for Technology Service Support to Downstream assets and products, as well as all commercial activities in Global Solutions.

Ed is married to Laura and has three daughters – Bethan, Tegan and Merys.

Ten Years and Counting...IACCGH Your Chamber of Choice

A Source of Awareness.

Recognizing opportunity is as important as recognizing talent.

That's why we partner with the Indo American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Houston (IACCGH) as they promote commercial and economic ties between business communities in the Greater Houston Area and India.

Awareness leads to contact, opportunity, and eventually, commitment. And our commitment to a responsible energy future starts with groups like the IACCGH.
